Specialist in intellectual property, technology, and data protection

Experience

Raminta's practice covers matters involving technology, intellectual property, and data protection, and she is particularly well known for her in-depth knowledge of data-protection matters, as she advises both Lithuanian and international companies and public-sector clients on all aspects of personal-data protection and privacy.

Raminta was one of the first legal practitioners in the field of data protection in Lithuania. She is also a frequent speaker at data protection-related conferences and training seminars for Data Protection Officers (DPOs), Privacy Officers, Legal / Compliance Officers, Security Officers, Business Continuity Managers, Data Controllers, Data Protection Auditors (internal and external) and HR managers.

Raminta, who is recommended as an expert in the field of TMT by the Legal 500, joined Motieka & Audzevičius in 2020 from one of the biggest law firms in Lithuania, where she was a Senior Associate.
