

Tomas Petrikas

Counsel

✉ tomas.petrikas@motieka.com

☎ +37052000777

Dispute resolution lawyer focusing on shareholder disputes, real estate law, and public interest litigation

Experience

Tomas advises clients on general business disputes and other litigation matters. He also has substantial experience in public procurement and administrative law.

Tomas has significant experience in the energy, financial-services, and real estate sectors, and he provides legal assistance to manufacturing companies, real estate developers, and companies in the transport and infrastructure industry.

Before joining Motieka & Audzevičius in 2012, Tomas worked as Chief Officer and as Deputy Head of Division of the Legal Affairs Department of the Vilnius City Municipal Government Administration.

Working languages: English, Russian, Lithuanian

Education and Memberships

Vilnius University, LL.M.

Member of:

Lithuanian Bar Association

Practice highlights

2022

- Successful representation of the university in an administrative case

2021

- Successfully defended gambling organizer's position in the Supreme Administrative Court
- Supreme administrative court litigation in a fair trial and media-law case

2020

- Successfully represented gambling organizer in the dispute with the regulator
- Represented a client in the first instance of a media-law case

2019

- Media law case before the European Court of Justice
- Victory in a cross-border media law dispute

2018

- Represented a real estate developer regarding obligation to compensate for the investments

2017

- A great victory in an audiovisual media law case before the Supreme Administrative Court

2016

- Case before the Supreme Court of Lithuania regarding the obligation to pay a special fee

2014

- Unprecedented example of very high value cross-border fraudulent transactions
- One of the most notable competition cases of recent years

2012

- Represented Vilnius City Municipality